Instructions for the use of this guide

- This guide is being provided by Misrachi Austria for all members of the Jewish Community. This kosher guide differs from conventional kosher guides through the fact that it is a compilation of kosher products that can be purchased in Austria and either show a kosher sign/stamp or are verifiably included in a kosher certificate by an acknowledged rabbinate.
- Products listed here thus are not under the kashrut-supervision of Misrachi or its rabbinate. The kashrut-authority of each product is stated next to it as well as important details to identify the precise product that is covered by the kashrut-certificate (lot/batch number, manufacturing country etc.)
- Some products contain "Chalav Stam" or are not "kosher lamehadrin".
- If stated so, then only products bearing a certain kosher sign/stamp are rendered kosher.
- Concerning all products that are considered kosher even without bearing a kosher sign/stamp: either they are enlisted in a kosher certificate or they are enlisted in other kosher lists as mentioned next product.
- Only sorts/brands/species mentioned specifically are considered kosher.
- If an expiration date is mentioned, one has to consult the website of Misrachi Austria, misrachi.at/koscher, whether there is a updated version available after this date. If this is not the case, then those products shouldn't be consumed any more, unless one obtains different information through Misrachi directly or through the kashrut authority mentioned with each product.
- New products (since the last update) are marked with "NEW."
- If you know a relevant product that is not yet on this list, we would be pleased to receive a note so that we can add it in the next edition.
- For questions concerning this guide, the products and the certificates, registration for our Kashrut-newsletter and proposed additions to the list, please send an e-mail to kaschrut@misrachi.at.
